The European Union Summit is opening on June 20st in Thessaloniki, in northern Greece. Around Thessaloniki itself and Halkidiki, the three-legged peninsula there is to be a large exclusion zone of several miles. Any attempt to get to the actual venue will end up with people fighting in the countryside far away from it. However, since Porto Carras Hotel is a small place, it can be blockaded by the demonstrators. We are waiting for your ideas, in order to organise the best blockade mission to the Porto Carras Hotel. We will stay in the town of Thessaloniki, the second town in Greece (1.500.000 inhabitants), where the great demonstrations are going to be held. Our aim is to formulate a left block against the EU's politics and the European governments, the Greek EU-presidency as well. Let's fight with us against capitalism and its supporters.
